A Personal Message From Dr. John C. Maxwell

My life purpose is to add value to leaders who multiply the value to other leaders, and I have dedicated my entire life to the development of leaders.

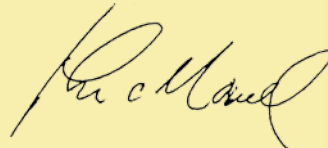

Having now passed the age of 60, the legacy I want to leave you is the most important lessons that will enable you to build leadership resilience with your whole team so that you will all thrive in the best and in the most difficult times.

At this upcoming seminar, you will also have the good fortune of learning from the world's greatest authorities on leadership. They will be imparting to you and your team the most important principles and practices that build resilient leaders.

I will be interviewing Tony Blair, Prime Minister of the UK for 10 years and Jack Nicklaus, the world's greatest golfer and golf course designer to bring out from them critical leadership lessons.

You will also benefit greatly by learning from my good friends Al Weiss, the President of Walt Disney; Profesor Bill George, best selling leadership author from Harvard University and Dr. William J. Rothwell, best selling author of over 60 management and HR books.

I look forward to work together with you and your team at the upcoming ITD-Mega Guru Event and the one thing I want to do for you is to add value to your whole leadership team that will last a lifetime.

Dr. John C. Maxwell

Tony Blair

Prime Minister of the United Kingdom for 10 years

Tony Blair served as Prime Minister of Great Britain and Northern Ireland from 1997 to 2007. He was also the leader of Britain's Labour Party (1994 to 2007) and the Member of Parliament for Sedgefield, England (1983 to 2007). As Prime Minister, Mr. Blair transformed Britain's public services through a program of investment and reform, resulting in better academic achievements for children, faster access to health care, and improved survival rates for cancer and coronary heart disease patients.

Mr. Blair is also widely credited for his contribution towards the Northern Ireland Peace Process, helping to negotiate the Good Friday Agreement and deliver a power-sharing government.

Mr. Blair currently works for the US, UN, Russia and EU as the Quartet Representative, helping the Palestinians prepare for statehood as part of the international community's peace effort. He is an advocate of a values-based, activist and multilateralist foreign policy - an agenda that combines intervention in Iraq, Afghanistan, Kosovo and Sierra Leone with action on climate change, global poverty, Africa and the Middle East Peace Process.

He launched the Tony Blair Faith Foundation to promote understanding between the major faiths and increase understanding of the role of faith in the modern world. He has also launched the Tony Blair Sports Foundation.

Al Weiss

President,
Walt Disney Parks
and Resorts Worldwide

Al Weiss serves as President of Walt Disney Parks and Resorts-Worldwide Operations. He is responsible for operations at the company's theme parks and resorts spanning 3 continents and including the Walt Disney World Resort, Disneyland Resort, Hong Kong Disneyland and Disneyland Resort Paris. He also oversees Disney Cruise Line and Disney Vacation Club.

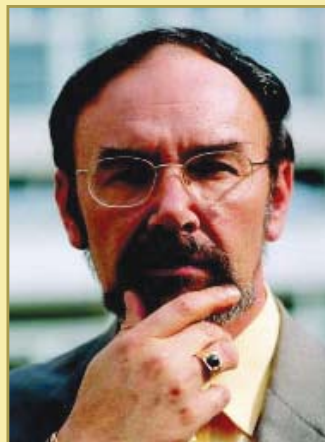

Al Weiss began his 36-year Disney career in 1972 as an hourly Cast Member and worked his way up through a variety of roles and leadership positions. He was named President of the Walt Disney World Resort in 1994 and named the Top Operations Leader for Disney's vacation destinations around the globe in November 2005.

Within the company, the community and the corporate world, Al Weiss is known for his passion for creating an unparalleled experience for each and every Guest, taking the business to new heights, giving back to the community and creating a world-class work environment for Cast Members.

Al Weiss has directed the largest resort expansion in Walt Disney World history, overseen the successful opening of Disney's Animal Kingdom and launched Disney Cruise Line. He is an active community leader, serving on the Metro Orlando Economic Development Commission, the Florida Council of 100 Board of Directors, the SunTrust Bank Central Florida Board of Directors, the Orange County Minority/Women Business Enterprise Alliance and the Give Kids the World Advisory Board. In addition, he has been named a Paul Harris Fellow by Rotary International for his commitment to that organization.

Al Weiss was named "Most Influential Businessman in Central Florida" by the Orlando Business Journal in 2005 and has received the Tree of Life Award from the Jewish National Fund for his visionary and humanitarian leadership in the community.

Al Weiss has also received the Pop Warner organization's most prestigious national award – the Warner Award – for achieving excellence in athletics, scholarship and life's endeavors with integrity and humanity. The National Conference for Community and Justice named Al Weiss the 2001 Humanitarian of the Year, honoring his work to promote respect and understanding among all races, religions and cultures. Staying closely involved with his alma mater, Al has served as chairman of the University of Central Florida Foundation Board of Directors and is a member of the UCF Board of Trustees.

Jack Nicklaus

Winner of a record 18 major golf championships. Voted Sports Illustrated's Male Athlete of the Century

No name is more synonymous with greatness in the sport of golf than the name Jack Nicklaus, and no single person has changed the face of the sport more than Jack Nicklaus – the player, the designer, and the good-will ambassador.

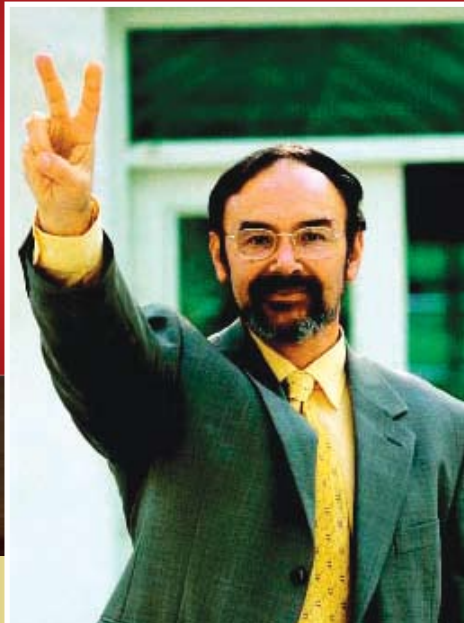

Jack, 68, has been named "Golfer of the Century" or "Golfer of the Millennium" by almost every major golf publication in the world. He was also named Male Athlete of the Century by Sports Illustrated, and one of the 10 Greatest Athletes of the Century by ESPN.

In November 2005, Jack was honored by President Bush at the White House with the Presidential Medal of Freedom, the highest honor given to any civilian. Jack's competitive career has spanned 5 decades, and his legend has been built with 105 professional tournament victories worldwide and a record 18 professional major-championship titles. He is the only player in history to have won each of the game's majors at least 3 times (6 Masters, 5 PGA Championships, 4 US Opens, 3 British Opens).

He has played on 6 Ryder Cup teams, captained 2 other Ryder Cup teams, and served as US captain for the 1998, 2003, 2005, and 2007 Presidents Cup teams. The legacy Jack has left as a player can be rivaled only by the legacy he is leaving as a golf-course designer. Jack was named GolfWorld's Architect of the Year in 1993, and in 1999, Golf Digest named him the world's leading active designer.

Jack has been involved in the design of 265 courses open for play worldwide, and his thriving business, Nicklaus Design, has 330 courses open for play around the world. Nicklaus Design courses are represented in 33 countries, 38 states, and at least 87 have hosted a combined total of close to 600 professional tournaments or significant national amateur championships. At least 60 Nicklaus Design courses have appeared in various national and international Top-100 lists.
