Lighting the Way as the Leading Multinational HRD Corporation

A Personal Message from Dr. John C. Maxwell

I have dedicated my entire life to the development of leaders. Having now passed the age of 60, the legacy I want to give you is the value I add to leaders who multiply the value to other leaders to enrich the lives of many people.

The single most important determinant of sustainable organizational success is Leadership. It is imperative that you establish a strong team of leaders if you want to create the multiplier effect for massive growth.

For Leaders, it's better to know the most important things than to know all things. Therefore, I have pulled together the most important work of my lifetime for you at this upcoming seminar.

Effective leadership has just so many high order requirements. But in a great leadership team each member brings their unique leadership strengths that create synergy for success rather than relying on one leader.

As we meet and work together at the upcoming ITD - Mega Guru Event, the one thing I want to do for you is to impact your whole leadership team and add value to you that last a lifetime.
